City of Eagleville Seeks Qualified Judge For Appointment

The City of Eagleville is seeking a qualified candidate to serve as its Municipal Judge. Qualifications for this position are specified in the Eagleville City Charter, Article X. The Judge will preside over Municipal Court, which occurs at least once a month.

Interested candidates should prepare a resume, specifically addressing qualifications required by Charter, and email Eagleville's City Attorney, Stephen Aymett, at saymett@ruckerlaw.com and Eagleville's City Manager, Hellyn Riggins, at citymanager@eaglevilletn.gov.

City judges and city court clerks must receive three hours of training each year provided through or with approval of the Administrative Office of the Courts. Failure of the judge to receive the training after a six-month grace period renders his/her judgments null and void. Both judges and clerks must be compensated and reimbursed for the training in accordance with the municipality's travel policy. T.C.A. § 16-18-309. The Administrative Office of the Courts and the Department of Safety must also provide annual training to court clerks on the necessity and importance of preparing and forwarding to the Department of Safety the abstract forms for conviction of traffic violations. T.C.A. § 55-10-306(f).

Each municipal judge is a member of the Tennessee Municipal Judges Conference and must attend its annual meeting unless physically incapable. The AOC shall pay expenses, subject to available funding. Otherwise, the municipality is responsible for paying expenses. T.C.A. § 17-3-301(d). [1]

Deadline for submittal is June 9, 2025, 4:00 p.m.

Candidates are invited to appear before the Council at its June 12, 2025 Work Session, with the anticipation of an appointment being made at the Regular Council Meeting on June 26, 2025.
